Good Afternoon VSP Team and fellow Veterans,

I received this a short time ago and checked it out. The website appears to be much better organized and has a lot of good info. Please pass to the Veterans in your life or anyone interested in the trades. Thanks and have a great day.

Very Respectfully,

Mark P. Gollinger

Subject: Announcing the Launch of the New Helmets to Hardhats Website

Dear Helmets to Hardhat User,

We are excited to officially announce the launch of the new Helmets to Hardhats website. The new site will launch the last week of March 2018 and available at the following URL: www.helmetstohardhats.org.

Our goal with this new website is to provide all of our users an improved experience.

Due to additional fields being added to the registration process, when logging in you may be prompted to complete your profile. Ensure that your phone number, email, mailing address and other pertinent information is correct.

Helmets to Hardhats would like to thank you for your dedicated service to the United States and its people! We also thank you for registering online with the Helmets to Hardhats program. We look forward to working with you to begin or advance your career in construction or find that next great employee or apprentice. Helmets to Hardhats is the first, and best, place for National Guard, Reservists, veterans and transitioning active duty military to find quality careers in the construction industry.

In addition to our online services, Helmets to Hardhats has Regional Managers and State Representatives who are here to assist you launch, or advance, your career in construction. If you have any questions, or would like more information about our program, feel free to contact your corresponding Regional Manager or State Representative from the enclosed listing.

If you have any technical issues please call 866-741-6210 (toll free), between 8:00 am and 4:30 pm EST or email info@helmetstohardhats.org, and we will be standing by to assist you.

Warmest regards,

The Helmets to Hardhats Team
